The Neepawa Rotary Club's used book sale officially began on Monday, May 8 and continued each day from 2:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. until Friday, May 12. The sale was held at the former Chalet Carpets building on Highway 16, just across from Home Hardware.

Readers of a variety of ages came to the sale to look for interesting new-to-them books. Above: With rows and rows of books available, the browsers had a variety of options and genres to choose from. right: These young readers got an up close look at some of the available books as well. Looks like it was quite the adventure!
